CASES ASSIGNED TODAY.
Brief Session of Superior Court—Prink Divorce Case Again on the Docket.

Friday's short calendar session of the superior court, held in this city, lasted but ten minutes, although cases enough to keep the court busy for the next week were assigned. Judge Gardner Greene, told the bar that several habeas corpus cases had been assigned for next Tuesday, and would probably occupy the day.

The following cases were assigned Friday: Zechel vs. Harris & Craney, first case, and O'Neil vs. Elm Farm Co., second case, for Wednesday; Vito vs. B. F. Mahan et al. for Thursday; while the case of the state against William J. Tuttle, charged with assault with intent to kill, was set down for Tuesday. Nov. 12, to follow the civil case of Frank St. Martin against the N. Y. N. H. & H. R. R., a retrial.

The case of Ruth Frink against Nelson L. Frink, unthought divorce, which was dropped from the list last spring, was reinstated. The case of Matthew and Margaret Gellison vs. R. R. Sheldon et al. was withdrawn, and the other matters on the short calendar were continued a week. Court adjourned until 10:15 Tuesday morning.

Emeralds Prepared for Successful Season.

With the passing of the baseball season, and football in its middle stage, fans are beginning to voice interest in the start of the basketball season. For the past few years, the Emeralds have had a team that has met with the most successful ball teams in the state, and defeated the majority of them. The Emeralds are getting ready for another successful season, and have booked a game with the Storms Aggies for Nov. 15th, which will be the final game of the season. If they do as well as last year, there will be an excellent attendance all season, and any team coming to the Emeralds will be expected to extend itself to go away victorious.

W. H. S. to Play New London M. T. S.
The W. H. S. eleven, which three such a score into the Norwich Free Academy Wednesday, will lineup this afternoon at Recreation park, against the team of the New London Marine Training school, and are out for a victory. The work of the eleven has been marred by the season, under efficient coaching, and is the best Windham has turned out in recent years. The team, which New London has a strong team this season and the contest should be well worth seeing.

LIFE SAVED AFTER OPERATION FAILED

Mrs. Clara Shaw of Providence Used Wonderful Remedy.
Mrs. Clara Shaw of 488 Dexter St., Providence, R. I., was a sufferer from stomach and liver troubles for many years. She was treated both in the United States and abroad, but without success. Then she took May's Wonderful Remedy and found swift relief. In a letter telling of her case she said: "I received your sample treatment the day before Christmas and it saved my life. For I was almost gone. I had an inflammation that got right up in my throat and seemed to choke me. My relatives said it was a miracle, as they knew how I suffered. I am better now than I have been for 30 years. May's Wonderful Remedy gives permanent results for stomach, liver and intestinal ailments. Eat as much and whatever you like. No more distress after eating. Pressure of gas in the stomach and around the heart. Get one bottle of your drugstore now and try it on an absolute guarantee—if not satisfactory money will be returned."
